

Teachers Back!

Our three stranded teachers are now home having been rescued by a kind person whose company had commissioned coaches to get their staff back. What an amazing story! Hopefully, we should be back to normal next week as far as staff are concerned, but we still have several children in far away places. At least the children have had great fun learning about volcanoes and tracking their teachers' journey. Year 3 also baked delicious volcano tarts yesterday!

Lower School House Football

Apologies! We forgot to report the results of this at the end of last term. The winners of the Lower School matches were Penn. Well done to all of you! Many thanks to the staff who made this possible, especially Miss Netherwood for her refereeing.

Visit of the Duke of Kent to the Infant School

What fun we had when Year 3 went to the Infant school to greet the Duke of Kent as he arrived for his visit. We waved our flags and smiled and watched as he planted their new tree. The children were so well behaved, we were really proud of them.

St. George's Day

Today we celebrated St George's Day with an assembly about his story and singing the National Anthem. Happy St. George's Day everyone!

Dates for the Summer Term

With some of our staff away, we haven't been able to set all our dates, however, I'm attaching the ones we have so far for this term - there will be more to add when we have had time to go through them in our full staff meeting.
